COMPETITION

Some who saw the last-minute mention in last week's 'News' of "68 socks" collected by the A.E.R.E. Toc H Group for OXFAM will have been glad to note that this was an even number; others, in particular those who helped make possible the despatch of a mountain of clothing, will have appreciated that it should have been "68 sacks".

Advice that the editor gives correspondents - to use for clarity a fountain pen and ruled paper - he will himself be following in the future. Half a guinea will be awarded the reader who conceives the best sentence in which the meaning can be subtly changed by the altering of only one letter. Closing date: Nov. 5th.

Sun. Oct. 20th Mixed v Great Milton Cancelled

We were definitely the stronger team, but good goalkeeping and close marking prevented us from scoring more than once before half-time. John Austin increased this lead, Doug Davies added another and Trevor Packer scored his second before, on the final whistle, Reading replied while our goalkeeper was trying to keep warm.

On Oct. 13th Ken Shaw led a Mixed VI to the Worthing tournament and they came top of their section. In the semi-final they lost by one corner to their hosts who won the final 5-1.

As a result of our exhibition three new members have joined the club. We still have not had anyone from Didcot or Abingdon, but have a member from Wantage who can transport modellers.

The railway will be in use every other Sun. morning to give members a chance to try out any new rolling stock and loco's. For further information about the club's activities phone Secretary, Ian Scott, Ext. 3369.

ROWING CLUB

On Sunday the club raced a four against Abingdon Rowing Club and won by  $\frac{1}{2}$  length over the Wallingford Regatta course of  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile. The Harwell crew, powerfully stroked by Bob Elliott, struck 21 in the first half minute to Abingdon's 18, and gained a quick lead of a length. For the next two minutes Abingdon fought back hard with some economical rowing and gradually began to pull level. Harwell were not rowing together too well, but they were putting in some useful work and as both crews began their finishing spurt Harwell still had a half length's lead which they maintained to the finish. Harwell IV:- G. Bishop (Bow), J. Scottorn(2), L. Herring(3), R.A.C. Elliott (stroke).

Rugby Club

A.E.R.E. 1st XV ... 3 pts. Oxford Nomads ... 20 pts.

The score does very much to flatter the Oxford team who won a very even game due to the quickness of their forwards on the loose ball. The Harwell side took two fatal minutes to get into the game and by this time the visitors had scored two goals. Harwell then gave as good as they got, and in the second half a solo effort by Du Preez gave Harwell their only try: a very creditable performance for a team which included five reserves.

Culham College 2nd XV 15 pts. A.E.R.E. 2nd XV 3 pts. Saturday's Fixtures: 1st XV v Reading Wanderers (H) K.O. 2.45; 2nd XV v Reading 'A' (A); 3rd XV v Reading Extra 'A' (H).
