news

SEVERAL REPORTS HAVE BEEN HELD OVER FROM NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE. TO AGAIN REDUCE THE LOAD ON REPRODUCTION SECTION, THE ISSUE OF JULY 22ND WILL ALSO BE HALF-SIZE, AND SO AS MANY ITEMS AS POSSIBLE SHOULD BE READY FOR THE INTERVENING FULL-SIZE ISSUES.

RESEARCH GROUP RETIREMENT FELLOWSHIP

Membership of the Fellowship is available to all retired employees of the Research Group including the Medical and Science Research Councils. The annual subscription will be Twenty Five Pence. The address is c/o Welfare Office, Building 329.

The first General Meeting will be at the Education and Training Centre at 14.30 hours on Tuesday, 27th July. All retired employees are welcome to attend. It will be appreciated if readers will pass on this information to any retired employees they know.

A.E.R.E. HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

FLOWER SHOW

Thurs. and Fri., 8th and 9th July. Schedules for those wishing to exhibit may be obtained from Mr. S.H. Dixon, Ext. 2886,

JUDO CLUB

On Thurs., 17th June, AERE were at home to Newbury J.C. for a non-league friendly match. Many thanks to the AERE members who deserted their examination swottings to be present on this occasion, as we were a bit doubtful about our ability to field a team at one stage due to holidays and injuries, but all turned out well. AERE won the 1st match and Newbury the second, an excellent way for a friendly to finish. A return to Newbury J.C. has been arranged for the near future when it is hoped more of our members will be available.

VI OF DIDO TEA-ROOM sends regards and best wishes to all friends and thanks them for the wonderful presents received.

LOST at Betatomic: Pearl drop from necklace, sentimental value. Ext. 2761.

UNCLAIMED MAIL awaits collection at Post Room 77 Ext. 2747, Jesse Stapleton.

LAWN TENNIS CLUB

Open Mixed American Tournament Sun. 4th July. Will couples wishing to enter please put their names on the list at the Ridgeway Courts. Entry fee 25p per couple.

Match Result 23rd June

A.E.R.E. 3 v Newbury B 6 Newbury E.L. Mens 2.
Tennis Balls. As the club is using even more tennis balls than usual this season, members are urged to retrieve any straying balls at once and to check that all the balls are present at the end of each set.

ARCHERY CLUB

Will the last person to leave the pavilion please ensure that our cupboards are properly locked, that the pavilion door is also locked and the keys returned to the Main Gate Police Lodge.

RIFLE CLUB

N.R.A.C.F. Pistol Postal Competition Our team of four shot the Period A event on Sunday June 20 in very difficult wind conditions. This resulted in a lower than expected score (631) but was still 9 points up on one of the matches last year.
Berkshire Championship Meeting. Nine members have entered the meeting to be held at Wendover next Sunday. Members are reminded that they are expected to support the County Association and purchase their ammunition there.
Full-bore. The next full-bore rifle shoot at Churn is on Sat. July 10.

SQUASH RACKETS

Coaching. The summer coaching session will begin on Sunday, 4th July at 10.00 a.m. All those who have put their names on the list in the courts are asked to be there on time, so that a prompt start can be made.
Berkshire S.R.A. The county again enjoyed a successful season winning eight of the ten matches played; the successes included wins over the three Services.

MOTOR CLUB

The July Jaunt - Wed. 7th July: Chairman Mao-Brown's treasure hunt celebrates the birthday of honorary member Jim Crint. The start is from Rush Common House car park, Abingdon, between 19.00 and 19.30. The route is 17 miles, has incredibly easy navigation, and almost as easy clues. All are welcome, old and new faces, members and non-members; just bring O.S. 158 and your usual paraphernalia, including beer money!
